Whitehall, October 27.

ON Wednesday last one of his Majesty's Messengers arrived from Hanover, at his Grace the Duke of Bedford's Office, with the Treaty signed at Madrid on the 5th of October, N. S. by Benjamin Keene, Esq; his Britannick Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary, and Don Joseph Carvajal and Lancaster, Knight of the most illustrious Order of the Golden Fleece, his Catholick Majesty's Minister of State, and President of the Council of State, &c. And Directions are given by their Excellencies the Lords Justices for preparing the Ratification for his Majesty's Royal Signature, upon his Arrival in England.

Tetuan, Sept. 16. A Treaty of Peace and Friendship is concluded between William Pettigrew, Esq; his Britannick Majesty's Consul General, and Hadge Mohemet Temim, Alcaide of this Place, whereby all former Treaties of Peace and Friendship between Great Britain and Morocco are renewed and confirmed; and the new Treaty is gone to the Emperor to be ratified. Mr. Pettigrew has likewise agreed with the Alcaide for the Redemption of Sixty Captives, his Britannick Majesty's Subjects; and Preparations are making for getting Part of them from Fez, and for embarking the Whole. The Tangerine Cruizer has taken a Dutch Vessel, loaden with Wheat, which they have made a Prize of, and sent the Crew, consisting of ten Men, into Captivity.

Gibraltar, Sept. 25. We are informed, that the Plague has ceased in all the Towns on the Coast of Morocco and Fez, and that very little remains of it in the interior Parts of that Country.

Stockholm, Oct. 20. The Prince Successor, and the Princess his Spouse, who have been for some Time taking the Diversion of Hunting in the Neighbourhood of Nora, set out from thence on the 10th Instant, accompanied by Count Tessin and Baron Palmstierna for Sala, where they arrived the same Day, and were received by the Magistrates in a Body, the Clergy and the Citizens. The 11th their Highnesses went to view the Mine in the Neighbourhood of that Place, and saw all the Operations which the Oar passes through, before it becomes pure Silver. On the 12th they went to Ekholmsund, and on the 17th returned to their Palace at Drottningholm.

Warsaw, Oct. 20. The King, before his Departure for Saxony, conferred the Order of the White Eagle on M. de Woronicz, Castallan of Kiow. We hear from Petrikau, that the Tribunal of the Kingdom continues its Assembly with all the Success that can be desired.

Vienna, Oct. 21. The Directors of the Bank of this City have given Notice, that they intend to pay off, at the End of December next, all such Sums of Money for which they now pay an Interest of 6 per Cent. unless the Proprietors thereof shall desire to have it continued afterwards at 5 per Cent. His Imperial Majesty sets out this Afternoon for Losenstein, a Seat belonging to Prince d'Aversperg, in order to take the Diversion of Hunting for some Days. On Friday last the Archdukes and Archdutchesses came from Schonbrun to the Palace in this City for the Winter. The same Day the Count de Hautefort, the French Ambassador, arrived here with his Lady, and a numerous Retinue; and on Monday he had his first private Audience of the Emperor. Some private Letters from Lower Hungary say, that the Janissaries, who are in Quarters in Bosnia, have revolted against their Chief; that some Thousands of them had assembled themselves together, and plundered the Town of Zwornick, after having massacred the Bashaw who commanded it, and some other Officers who endeavoured to bring them to Reason; that they afterwards set Fire to some of the Neighbouring Villages, and that several of the Inhabitants had perished in the Flames.

Copenhagen, Oct. 24. On Monday last the King went with a numerous Retinue to the Island of Armagh near this City, in order to be present at the Proving of some new Pieces of Cannon invented by a German, who has been here for some Time; they were so contrived as to fire in a different Manner from other Cannon, and his Majesty seemed greatly pleased with the Performance. M. vander Luhe, Knight of the Order of Dannebrog, one of the King's Chamberlains, and Grand Bailiff of Seland, died here the 19th Instant; by whose Death the important Post of Grand Bailiff of Seland, which the King had lately conferred on him, is again become vacant.

Dreſden, Oct. 25. Their Majeſties and the whole Court propoſe ſetting out on Friday next for Hubertsbourg, where they intend to ſtay ſome Time. On Tueſday laſt M. Calkoen, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the States General of the United Provinces, had his firſt private Audience of his Majeſty, and delivered his Credential Letters; after which he had an Audience of the Queen; and on Thurſday M. de Malſhan, the new Pruſſian Miniſter, had likewiſe his firſt private Audience of their Majeſties.

Hague, Oct. 30. Lord Anſon and Lord De La War arrived here the Night before laſt: They had landed that Evening at Helvoetſluys from on Board the Squadron which is to convoy his Majeſty to England. The Prince Stadtholder has lately publiſhed a Proclamation, for the better preventing the Plundering of Ships, which may have the Misfortune to be wreck'd on the Iſle of Ameland, ſituate near the Coaſt of Frieſland, and belonging to his Serene Highneſs. Count Bentinck and M. De Larroy ſet out for Loo on Wedneſday laſt. M. Kinſchot, late the Republick's Reſident at Bruſſels, is returned to the Hague.

Hague, Nov. 3. His Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, who has been here theſe two Days, propoſes to ſet out To-morrow for Bruſſels, where his Dutcheſs is waiting for him; from whence they will proceed to Calais, in order to embark on Board the Fubbs Yatch for England. By Advices from Hanover we learn, that the King of Great Britain intends leaving that Place on Monday next, the 9th Inſtant, on his Return to England, ſo that his Majeſty is expected at Helvoetſluys on the Friday following. Yeſterday the Anniverſary of the Princeſs of Orange's Birth-day was celebrated here with great Rejoycings; in the Morning the Cannon were fired; and in the Evening moſt of the Houſes were prettily illuminated. On this Occaſion M. de Rambouillet, one of the Gentlemen of her Royal Highneſs's Bed-Chamber, gave a very elegant Entertainment, at which were preſent ſeveral Perſons of the firſt Diſtinction. They write from Loo, that their Serene Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Orange have fixed their Departure for this Place for the 15th Inſtant.
